

Ligne Roset® Debuts Flagship Location in Chicago

The legacy brand's second Flagship in the Americas firmly establishes French savoir-faire in the River North Design District

Chicago, Illinois – High-end French furniture and lifestyle brand Ligne Roset® is proud to announce that the Ligne Roset Chicago store is under new corporate ownership as the second Flagship location in the Americas. Located at 440 N. Wells Street (Wells and Hubbard), the new Flagship is at the heart of Chicago's River North Design District, beloved for its range of offerings accessible to local interior designers as well as consumers.

“We look forward to welcoming the Chicago design community to our strengthened store,” says Simone Vingerhoets-Ziesman, Managing Director Americas of the Roset USA Corporation. “Our commitment is to provide our customers with the highest level of service and to positively impact Chicagoland's rich history of beautiful design.”

The River North Design District is well-known as the home of shopping experiences both unique and personalized, making it the perfect location for Ligne Roset's second Flagship in the Americas, following the first in Manhattan earlier this Year. It opens 160 years after the family-owned legacy brand's outset, following over a century and a half of technical innovation, collaboration, and superior quality and care. This new Chicago flagship honors that impressive history with an investment in the future, ensuring that generations to come can live boldly and beautifully with the highest quality French-made design.

Chicagoans are invited to visit, meet the growing team, and explore the collection in whichever way is most convenient: in-store, with a home visit, or by virtual consultation. The Ligne Roset Chicago team may be contacted by email (lignerosetchicago@rosetusa.com) or phone (312.846.1080), and are eager to support upcoming creative projects.

About Ligne Roset

Known for its artful collaboration with both established and up-and-coming talents in contemporary design, Ligne Roset® offers clients an entire lifestyle in which to live both boldly and beautifully via its furniture collections and complimentary decorative accessories, lighting, rugs, textiles and occasional items. In-house manufacturing allows Ligne Roset to closely supervise the entire product creation process and uphold the highest production standards.

Matching its deeply-held belief in design with investment and innovation, Ligne Roset has grown from a small business to a multinational company with factories and headquarters in France and more than 200 exclusive Ligne Roset stores and 1,000 retail distributors worldwide. All the while, the company has been family-run since its inception in 1860.
